TOUR SUMMARY:

On this tour of Southern Iceland, experience the country's most stunning natural wonders, from powerful waterfalls and glaciers to black sand beaches and geothermal marvels. Begin in Reykjavik, the capital, where you can explore the city at your own pace, strolling along Laugavegur or visiting the Harpa Concert Hall. From there, travel to Thingvellir National Park, witness the erupting geysers Geysir and Strokkur and marvel at the Gullfoss Waterfall. Later, journey along the South Coast to Seljalandsfoss and Skogafoss waterfalls, explore the Solheimajokull Glacier and visit the dramatic cliffs of Dyrholaey and the black sand beach of Reynisfjara. You will continue your journey to Vatnajokull, Europe's second-largest glacier, marveling at its vast icy tongues and stunning landscapes. Afterwards, visit the serene Jokulsarlon Glacier Lagoon with drifting icebergs, drive through the expansive Eldhraun lava fields, and then make your way back to Reykjavik.

Overnight in Reykjavik

DAY 3: WED REYKJAVIK (B/-/-)

Today after breakfast, spend the day exploring Reykjavik's highlights at leisure. You may decide to visit the striking Hallgrímskirkja Church for city views, unwind in the soothing Sky Lagoon, or explore the Reykjavik Art Museum. Discover Viking heritage at the National Museum, admire street art and indulge in Icelandic delicacies at local restaurants and cozy cafes.

Overnight in Reykjavik

DAY 4: THU REYKJAVIK - HAFNARFJORDUR - HVOLSVOLLUR (200KM) (B/-/D)

After breakfast, you will meet your driver and tour leader for the next three days. Check out from the hotel and begin a short sightseeing tour of Reykjavik. During the tour, you will visit the contemporary sculpture Solfarid (Sun Voyager) by Jon Gunnar Arnason, a symbol of the city and see Hofdi House, where Ronald Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev held their historic 1986 meeting. Then, you will also visit Hallgrímskirkja, the largest church in Iceland, along with the cathedral and the Parliament building. From there, continue to Thingvellir National Park, located on the shores of Iceland's largest natural lake, Thingvallavatn. The park lies on the boundary between two tectonic plates, resulting in visible rifts and significant seismic and volcanic activity, the most striking of which is the Almannagja gorge. Recognized for its geological and historical importance, Thingvellir was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2004. Thereafter, proceed to the geothermal area where the famous geysers Geysir and Strokkur are located with Strokkur erupting every few minutes, creating a spectacular sight. Later, continue to one of Iceland's most breathtaking natural wonders, Gullfoss (Golden Waterfall), which plunges 32 meters in two dramatic tiers. Finally, you will drive to the Hvolsvollur area, known as the gateway to Iceland's scenic South Shore. Post check-in, enjoy dinner at the hotel.

Overnight in Hvolsvollur

DAY 5: FRI HVOLSVOLLUR - SOUTH COAST HIGHLIGHTS - KIRKJUBAEJARKLAUSTUR(350KM) - HVOLSVOLLUR (B/-/D)

Today after breakfast, you will depart from Hvolsvollur and travel along Iceland's stunning South Coast. Your first stop is the postcard perfect Seljalandsfoss Waterfall, a breathtaking sight that you can admire both from the front and from behind its shimmering water curtain. Continue to the famous Eyjafjallajökull volcano, whose 2010 eruption temporarily halted air travel across Europe - a perfect spot for photos. Then visit the village of Skogar, home to the impressive Skogafoss Waterfall, 25 meters wide and 60 meters high, as well as an open-air museum showcasing Iceland's traditional heritage. From there, enjoy a walk to one of the tongues of the Myrdalsjökull Glacier, known as Solheimajokull, where you can witness the fascinating ice formations up close. Afterwards, drive towards the Dyrholaey Nature Reserve, where you can marvel at the dramatic coastal cliffs, unique rock formations and Iceland's most photogenic natural rock arch. Finally, visit the striking black sand beach of Reynisfjara, famous for its basalt columns and sea stacks. During the breeding season, you may also spot thousands of seabirds nesting along the cliffs, including the charming puffins. Return to Hvolsvollur for overnight.

Overnight in Hvolsvollur

DAY 6: SAT HVOLSVOLLUR - REYKJAVÍK (700 KM) (B/-/-)

In the morning after breakfast, drive towards the area of Vatnajökull, the second-largest glacier in Europe. Along the way, admire the magnificent glacial tongues extending from this immense ice cap, offering stunning views of Iceland's natural beauty. Continue to the breathtaking Jokulsarlon Glacier Lagoon, where you can watch shimmering icebergs drifting gracefully across the water, a truly unforgettable sight. Afterwards, drive to Reykjavik for your dinner.

Overnight in Reykjavik

DAY 7: SUN REYKJAVIK - CHICAGO (B/-/-)

After breakfast at the hotel, you will visit the Blue Lagoon - Iceland's world-famous geothermal spa, is renowned for its milky-blue, mineral-rich waters and lava-field setting. With the Premium Package, you can relax in warm waters, enjoy silica mud and face masks, sip drinks, and rejuvenate in a unique, scenic environment. Transfer from the hotel to the Blue Lagoon is included.

You will then be transferred to Reykjavik International Airport to check in for your flight home
